

1. During your lifetime, you will produce enough saliva to fill two swimming pools.

2. Blood in the body is blue until it is exposed to oxygen which causes it to turn red.

3. The human body is made up of over 100 trillion cells.

4. The largest organ in your body is your skin

5. Of the many characteristics of life, an organism must be able to breathe to be considered alive.

6. Both prokaryotes and eukaryotes have a nucleus that contains the DNA of the organism.

7. The largest flower in the world can grow to be the size of an umbrella.

8. You have more bacteria cells in and on your body than your own body cells.

9. All organisms have only 5 senses, touch, smell, sight, sound, and taste.

10. Every nucleus in the human body cells has 6 ft of DNA in it.

11. All animals reproduce sexually while all plants reproduce asexually.

12. Your thumb is the same length as your nose.

13. Photosynthesis is the process done by plants to produce carbon dioxide and oxygen.

14. Messages from the brain travel down the nerves at close to 200mph.

15. The power exerted from our brain is enough to power a city.

16. Animal cells are the only type of cells that have a cell wall.